

ASIAN STUDIES PROGRAM Kansai Gaidai University

OVERVIEW

Established in 1972, the Asian Studies Program today annually welcomes about 750 competitively selected students who represent about 40 countries and regions. Typically, our student body is equally balanced between males and females.

SPECIAL FEATURES

1. Superb Location

Kansai Gaidai is ideally located among the central areas of major cities: Osaka, Kyoto, and Nara where you can experience amazing traditional culture, history, and modern business.

2. Excellent Academic Calendar

The Asian Studies Program follows a typical academic calendar of major overseas institutions in the northern hemisphere:

Fall Semester: Late August – December Spring Semester: Late January – May

3. 70+ Courses Offered in English

In addition to Japanese language courses, a wide variety of contentbased courses from social sciences to business is available in English providing the deeper understanding of Japan and Asia from many different perspectives.

- Japanese language courses (from level 1 to 8)
- Content-based courses
- · Studio art courses: Ceramics, Manga Drawings, Koto (Japanese Harp)

Quick Facts of the University

- 1. Founded in 1945
- 2. Located in Osaka, Japan
