Institutional Information

Institution Name: University of Regina

Country: Canada

Location: The main campus is located in the city of Regina in the Saskatchewan Province.

Website: <http://www.uregina.ca>

Description: The University of Regina has roots in Regina College, a small residential high school established by the Methodist church in 1911. The College grew in size and significance becoming a campus of the University of Saskatchewan and, ultimately, an independent degree granting university – the University of Regina – in 1974. Currently, it is one of Canada's top 10 comprehensive universities.

Support is our strength: From the moment we meet you and your family, until the moment you find employment after graduation, we provide personalized services to encourage and assist in your academic and career needs.

State of the art facilities: Come and discover our new campus. It is modern, clean and convenient.

The U of R is a global community: We are large enough to host students from over 90 countries, yet small enough to give you a more personalized and focused academic experience. You can get to know your professors and faculty members. The student to faculty ratio is 20:1. We Also have many associations that you can get involved with. Check it out!
